SCRIPT

It is extremely important that all participating groups provide FOUR copies of their script to The Arts Unit by Friday 26 September. Please note the following requirements:

- All scripts must be accurate – please check for last minute changes to the actual script spoken by actors
- All scripts must be TYPED and use double spacing
- All scripts must use Arial font in 12pt
- All movement must be clearly described, especially if sound or lighting cues rely on specific movements. It is important to know what comes just BEFORE the cue. These movement descriptions must also be double spaced.

AL SCRIPTS ARE DUE ON MONDAY 19 OCTOBER 2009

PRODUCTION PHONE MEETINGS

There will be an opportunity for you to contact Christopher Snape (Technical & Lighting Designer) for a pre-Festival Production Meeting to discuss your lighting/sound requirements.

This meeting will be done by phone or by email.

The following are the contact details:

Christopher Snape – mobile: 0427 253 877

Christopher Snape - email address: christophersnape@fullhouseps.com

This phone call is not compulsory but an option so that all teacher/directors will have an opportunity to discuss their work prior to technical rehearsals. These discussions can help the Lighting Designer to know the type of lights/technical equipment that is required prior to your Technical Rehearsal.

Each phone call will only last up to 10 minutes duration.

These phone calls/emails should only happen from

Monday 19 October to Monday 26 October 2009.

This is the week prior to the lighting & technical equipment being bumped into the theatre.
